George William Parker

In Memoriam

"We are met to give thanks to God for the life of George William Parker, who was born to mortal years July 29, 1946, and who was received to the eternal fulfillment of life November 14th in the year of our Lord, 1964.

"He is not here. We will carry to rest only the broken shell of the boy who lived with such zest and joy among us . . .

"Your minds are with your memories of him: he had a special affinity for all living, growing things, and brought a gentle hand to the care of the animals he gathered about him.

"So soon to go; his bright promise unfulfilled. He still had work to do and love to share. Now we take up those tasks in his behalf; to finish the work he had to leave undone; to fill as best we can the empty place he has left in our midst . . .

"His life goes on, hidden from our sight, but in the profound reality of God's unmeasureable love."

Reverend Roger L. Albright,
Pastor of the United Church
West Rutland, Vermont

Joseph J. Zawistoski

Dedication

This yearbook is dedicated to Mr. Joseph J. Zawistoski, an outstanding mathematics instructor, who is an inspiration to his students, commands their respect, and leaves them with a true feeling of accomplishment.

GEOFFREY GRAHAM

Superintendent

Completing a yearbook is an exercise in planning and in human relations. The willing and generous contributions of the time and talents of many are necessary if a yearbook is to be attractive, accurate, complete, and ready on time.

Every graduate is like a human yearbook. Into every page of your life are written the willing and generous contributions of the time and talents of parents, clergy, friends, neighbors, and teachers. Unlike the yearbook, you, the graduate, will continue to add many and interesting pages in the life you lead in the world of work, of travel, of family, and friends.

The Town of West Rutland has cared for and about you. This is a warm and generous fact; may you carry your town's example in your heart, and give of yourself as generously to those who come after you. Only by giving can you be fulfilled.

Principal

During your four years at WEST RUTLAND HIGH SCHOOL you have contributed a great deal to the welfare of the school.

I would like to remind you that education is a preparation for complete living. It is the development of the mind, the heart, and the soul which animates, unites, and guides you in your associations with your fellow men. Your ALMA MATER has afforded you this three-fold training.

It is my hope that the ideals and principles you have cherished during your four years of high will be an inspiration to you in the future, as you read the pages of the 1965 "Green and Gold."

Class Song

We're leaving you now in a sad frame of mind,
The class of '65.
Our teachers and friends we are leaving behind,
The class of '65.
Old Westside high we're leaving now,
But there's no time for grieving now.
The world awaits with open arms
The class of '65.

Our diplomas this evening we're here to get,
The class of '65.
We've paid very dearly for them you can bet,
The class of '65.
We've earned the right to make our way,
Our education will start to pay.
We'll do our best to better our world
The class of '65.

Some of us here on to college will go,
The class of '65.
And when we get there we'll let them all know,
We're the class of '65.
Cause we're seniors all and proud we are,
We hope what we've learned will carry us far,
We'll see that the world won't soon forget
The class of '65.

We'll always remember what we have done here,
The class of '65.
Our memories will last through many a year,
The class of '65.
And even when we're old and gray,
I know that we'll be proud to say,
I graduated from high school with
The class of '65.

Patrick Higgins

Class Poem

We've spent four years at Westside high,
The time now comes to say goodbye;
Goodbye to friends who've been so true
Goodbye to patient teachers too;
For we must leave to go and see
What awaits us our destiny.

The things we did while we were here
We'll remember for many a year;
The trophies we won in basketball
The time we spent in study hall
Our principals, Hinchey and Timbers, too,
What happens tonight and all of you.

Though these thoughts now
bring embarrassed tears
We'll cherish them throughout the years
And someday we'll be proud to say
I cried on graduation day!

Patrick Higgins

Class History

1961-1962

In September, 1961, twenty boys and eighteen girls entered the halls of West Rutland High School. We were very much bewildered and excited to be there at last.

After the Freshman Reception, we were well on our way to four years of study.

Our only new faculty member was Mr. Donald O'Leary, instructor in the science department.

Steve Bania, James Fuller, Edward Glodzik, Raymond Jepson, Edward McGann, and Richard Sweeney were the members of the football squad.

To cheer our team were Deborah Amsden and Susan Burke.

Our actresses and actors in the One Act Plays were Susan Burke, Patricia Burns, Edward McGann, Edward Glodzik, and Richard Sweeney.

Those who contributed to the J. V. basketball team were Stephen Bania, Edward Glodzik, Robert Hyjek, and James Brytowski.

As winter appeared, the band started practicing for its concerts. The members were Deborah Amsden, Susan Burke, Patricia Burns, Therese Costello, James Fuller, Linda Gilligan, George LaVictoire, Mary Margaret Nash, Dianne Perry, and Mary Salengo.

The Glee Club had Deborah Amsden, Susan Burke, Therese Costello, James Fuller, Linda Gilligan, Mary Margaret Nash, Katherine Nienaltowski, George Parker, Patricia Pecor, and Dianne Perry as its members.

When the snow had drifted away, baseball season began with James Fuller participating.

With the conclusion of a hard year of study, we were freed for our summer vacation.

1962-1963

After an enjoyable summer, we arrived at school to start another year of diligent study.

Three new teachers joined our faculty. They were Miss Nancy Yager, instructor in typewriting, shorthand and office practice; Mr. John Kelley, English III and IV, and French I and II; and Mr. Charles Wise, commercial teacher.

When autumn came several of the boys prepared for the football season. The members representing our class on the team were Stephen Bania, Robert Carvey, James Fuller, Robert Hyjek, Raymond Jepson, Edward McGann, and Richard Sweeney.

Basketball season soon arrived. The boys representing our class were Robert Hyjek and Edward Glodzik.

To cheer our boys on to victory were Deborah Amsden, Susan Burke, Theresa Costello, and Barbara Hyjek.

Our class participants in the one-act plays were Deborah Amsden, Susan Burke, Patricia Burns, Theresa Costello, James Fuller, Edward Glodzik, Edward McGann and Richard Sweeney.

As autumn passed, chorus members started practicing for their concerts. Our class was represented by Deborah Amsden, Susan Burke, Patricia Burns, Theresa Costello, James Fuller, Linda Gilligan, Edward Glodzik, George Parker, Dianne Perry, Mary Nash, Catherine Nienaltowski, and Theresa Smyrski.

Susan Burke, Theresa Costello, and Barbara Hyjek were chosen majorettes.

After the snow had left the athletic field, the baseball season got underway. The boys who participated were James Fuller and Edward McGann.

The Varsity Club members were Steve Bania, Robert Carvey, James Fuller, Robert Hyjek, Raymond Jepson, and Richard Sweeney.

Susan Burke, James Fuller and Edward McGann took part in the annual Prize Speaking Contest.

Our sophomore year had passed very quickly, and we looked forward to another summer of pleasure.

1963-1964

Following a restful summer for all, we again entered the halls of West Rutland to begin the second half of our high school career.

One new teacher was added to the faculty this year. Mr. John Gibbud became head of the science department, including chemistry, biology, physics, and general science.

Autumn again brought the football season. Supporting the grid team from our class were Raymond Jepson, Steven Bania, James Fuller, James Brytowski, Edward Glodzik, and Robert Carvey. Our junior cheerleaders were Deborah Amsden, Barbara Hyjek, and Theresa Costello.

The Christmas vacation of 1963 was welcomed dearly. The band gave its annual concert for the Yuletide season, under the direction of Mr. Ianni. Members from our class were Deborah Amsden, Linda Gilligan, Patricia Burns, James Fuller, and Dianne Perry. Glee Club participants were Patricia Pecor, Susan Burke, Dianne Perry, Mary Margaret Nash, Theresa Costello, Linda Gilligan, Theresa Smyrski, Deborah Amsden, George Parker, Edward Glodzik and James Fuller.

West Rutland's basketball team enjoyed a successful season under the coaching of James Leamy. The sole member of the squad representing our class was James Brytowski.

During the next few weeks we supposedly studied for our mid-year exams. Following their completion we looked forward to our vacation.

In no time we had organized our science club under the supervision of Mr. Gibbud and were preparing for our Annual Science Fair. Juniors contributing to the fair were Richard Sweeney, Edward McGann, and Dianne Perry.

By this time the baseball season was here once again. Our class participants were James Brytowski, James Fuller and Edward McGann.

The delegates to attend the model United Nations held at Plymouth, New Hampshire, were Susan Burke and Edward McGann.

Chosen to attend Girls' State from our class was Patricia Burns. Attending Boys' State were James Fuller and Richard Sweeney.

1964-1965

Well, 1964 brought with her our fourth and final year at West Rutland. The dream of being a senior was at last fulfilled; now to live up to expectations.

Three new teachers joined the staff. They were Mr. William H. Timbers, West Rutland's new Principal; Mr. Susan Carroll -- English IV A, and Civics; Mrs. Jean McVeigh -- English III and French I and II.

Soon Miss Hinchey organized our first class meeting. Richard Sweeney was elected president; Barbara Hyjek, Vice-President; Susan Burke, secretary; and James Fuller, Treasurer.

West Rutland initiated its first Student Council program in years under the supervision of Mr. Timbers. Members of the council from the senior class were Richard Sweeney, President; James Fuller and Edward McGann.

The call of the gridiron was out again; this year the coaching staff consisted of Mr. Gibbud and assistant coach George Stomper. Those hardy seniors on the team were Edward Glodzik, Richard Sweeney, Raymond Jepson, Edward McGann, Robert Carvey, Stephen Bania, Michael Conlon, and Kenneth Heleba.

In November we had our Senior Play, TOO MANY RELATIVES. Members of the cast were Richard Sweeney, Susan Burke, Edward McGann, Patricia Burns, Therese Costello, Deborah Amsden, Patrick Higgins, Robert Carvey, Edward Glodzik and Theresa Smyrski.

Christmas once more was here, and Mr. Ianni held the concert in the gymnasium. Participants in the band this year were Linda Gilligan, Dianne Perry, Patricia Burns, and Deborah Amsden. Members of the glee club were Therese Costello, Barbara Hyjek, Mary Margaret Nash, Susan Burke, Linda Gilligan, Patricia Pecor, Theresa Smyrski, James Brytowski, Raymond Jepson, Joseph Turner, Richard Sweeney, Edward Glodzik, James Fuller, Bruce Johnston, Robert Hyjek, Stephen Bania, Kenneth Heleba, and Robert Carvey.

After mid-years, we settled down to more studying, finishing the yearbook, looking back on the years at W. R. H. S. , and looking ahead to graduation and our future.

Class Prophecy

It is the year 2065 and we now take you to Barney's Nightclub, owned and operated by Steve Bania, for the annual class reunion of the class of '65. He inherited it from his brother Al who retired in 2060.

Performing tonight is the famous Hoochy-Koochy dancer Susan Burke. She is top performer in the country and has been all over the world performing in different night-clubs.

Entering the nightclub is now the famous Ken Heleba who has just appeared on Broadway singing his latest release: "I Want to Hold Your Toe!" The record is climbing so fast that they are now selling toe-holders.

Seated to the left of the dance floor is Edward McGann who was once a bank manager -- now retired and living off the money which he gyped from so many people. He lives in a shack down by the marshes of Whipple Hollow.

To the right of the dance floor is his once thought to be life-long friend Patrick Higgins, who now owns a prune factory in Fresno, California.

Because of the rivalry between McGann's money and Higgins' prunes, the former Deborah Amsden up and married Edward Glodzick who is now one of the top ten criminals in the country. He is now on bail for $2,000 for robbing "Peanut's Jewelry Store," located in Hydeville Flats.

Arriving in a limousine are Mr. & Mrs. Richard Sweeney. His wife, the former Patricia Burns, is now an Olympic short-distance runner. She has just arrived from Europe where she has won three gold medals. Dick met Patty at Birdseye Ski Lodge and they have been happily married for five years.

Ernest Wedin has told us that while hunting for bear on Hanley's Mountain, he stumbled upon a gold mine. He now resides at Whipple Hollow Mansion.

The newly-weds Mr. & Mrs. Raymond Jepson, his wife the former Barbara Hyjek, have just come back from their honeymoon in East Chippenhook Flats, south of East Shrewsbury, 16 Buckles Up!

Ronald Hier, an expert at his job, has finally acquired the job as Truant Officer at West Rutland High School.

Selling cigarettes are Patricia Pecor, Linda Deo, and Sandra Cheney. Their slogan is: "We Tareyton smokers would rather fight than switch."

Now for an added side attraction -- appearing on the stage is Therese Costello, the world's fattest lady. Therese told us that the food out toward Castleton was very good.

Heading Barney's gambling tables is Stanley Jakubowski, the world's most famous card shark. No one goes home with his pockets full after playing with Jake.

Seated at one of the gambling tables is Senator Joseph Turner from Tinmouth. Joe just can't seem to win with Jake's dealing. By the way, Joe has seven cars -- one for everyday of the week.

Tonight we have Dianne Perry displaying her cattle on stage. Dianne has won many 4-H medals for her cattle.

The audience is now applauding and as we look up we see James Brytowski, the famous Celtic Star. Jim scored 246 points tonight against the West Rutland Bombardiers.

Mary Margaret Nash has just won first prize at the Annual Hair Dresser's Show. She has invented a new hairdo called "Droop-O." It is guaranteed to droop.

Linda Gilligan is now secretary to James Fuller, custodian of W. R. H. S. James finally received his job after 23 years as assistant to custodian Walter Hyjek.

Spaceman Robert Hyjek has just returned from the moon where he discovered green cheese sold by Green-Moon girls. Bob has brought some back and has put it on the market; it is selling very well.

Michael Conlon, after 10 years on a very strict diet, has made tremendous progress. Say doctors: "He has trimmed down three pounds." Of course now that he is married to the former Mary Salengo he has all the food he wants.

The great mechanic Bruce Johnston, after working on his jalopies, has just invented a new jalopy. He calls it the "Jalopiest Jalopy." It surely has a lot of get up and go; in fact it has so much you have to jack it up before it goes!

Candid

Also trying to find a cure is Dr. Edward Larson who has spent seven years in France studying swamp fever. He has studied so much that he has shrunk in size.

Robert Carvey and John Johnson are co-owners of the Vermont Sanitation Department. These two men have done a tremendous job of picking up garbage. In appreciation for the many duties, the state of Vermont has presented them with a new white panel truck for them to dirty up.

Last but not least entering the premises is Miss Theresa Smyrski. Terry is the first woman manager of the Half-Wit Baseball Team of Mendon, Vermont.

Time sped so fast that no one realized the wee hours of the morning had arrived. As we were all leaving -- some on their own, some being helped -- we all realized that this reunion was well worthwhile. So as the doors close on this gala spot we bid you farewell.

Class Will

DEBORAH AMSDEN -- wills her brain to the Biology Class, "It's not doing me any good."

STEVE BANIA -- wills nothing because everything he has he needs and that isn't much.

MARY BIOTY -- wills her typewriter to her brother Tommy -- Good Luck, Tommy.

JIM BRYTOWSKI -- wills his brains to Jack Baron; they're not doing him any good.

SUSAN BURKE -- wills her New Lady Clairol hair coloring to Patty McCormack.

PATTY BURNS -- wills her Biology Class to anyone who can stand to spend forty-seven minutes with Mr. Gibbud.

BOB CARVEY -- wills his hair to the girls so they won't have to set theirs.

SANDRA CHENEY -- wills her seat in the senior homeroom to Ann Taggart. "Hope you don't get too cold in the winter, Ann."

MIKE CONLON -- wills his Law notes to anyone who can read them or anyone who can read or find them.

THERESE COSTELLO -- wills her cheering and majoretting ability to her sister Patty.

LINDA DEO -- wills her cold, long walks to school in the morning to her sister Gloria.

JIM FULLER -- wills his ability to use the telephone to anyone who wants to tie up the line as long as he did.

LINDA GILLIGAN -- wills her quietness to her sister Diane. "She really needs it."

EDWARD GLODZIK -- wills his ONE pair of soiled and dirty football socks to brother Louie; wash them at least once during the season.

KEN HELEBA -- wills his alarm clock that never works to Wayne Amado.

RONALD HIER -- wills his ability to do very little homework to anyone that is as lazy as he was; namely, John Potter.

PAT HIGGINS -- wills his ability to do crazy things while hunting to anyone who isn't afraid to take the chance of getting shot.

BARBARA HYJEK -- wills her scientific mind to anyone who wants to flunk Biology.

ROBERT HYJEK -- wills an educated thumb to Bruce Austin. Cherish your right thumb, Bruce.

SANDRA JANKOWSKI -- wills her hours of typing after school to Carolyn Wilkins. Good luck, Carolyn.

STANLEY JAKUBOWSKI -- wills his mustache to an immature Freshman.

RAY JEPSON -- wills his four years of football to an incoming freshman.

JOHN JOHNSON -- wills his locker to his brother; keep it cleaner than I did, Dick.

BRUCE JOHNSTON -- wills his outstanding marks in English to Richard Lloyd, and hope you will enjoy them more than he did.

EDWARD LARSON -- wills his good looks, uncanny wit, and unnerving charm to Bill Higgins.

EDWARD MCGANN -- wills his Irish temper to anyone who has a much gall as he does.

MARY MARGARET NASH -- wills her flirtatious ways to anyone who needs it.

KATHY NIENALTOWSKI -- wills her four years in high school to her sister Helen, with hopes that she will enjoy them as much as she did.

PATRICIA PECOR -- wills her hot temper to her sister Sandra.

DIANNE PERRY -- wills her duties at lunch time to Nancy Gilmore.

MARY SALENGO -- wills her morning promptness of getting into homeroom to her sister Anne. If she is lucky, it will get her there by 8:35 a. m.

THERESA SMYRSKI -- wills her knowledge of sports to her brother Bobby.

RICHARD SWEENEY -- wills his red hair to Miss Hinchey. Just because we think you'd look good with it, Miss Hinchey.

JOE TURNER -- wills his comb to Bill Lundrigan.

ERNEST WEDIN -- wills his ability to get away from school and out into nature's wonderland of animals and birds, to Tom Jakubowski.

Edward Glodzik
Patricia Pecor

Class Pastimes

DEBORAH AMSDEN -- Debby could often be seen with a letter in her hand. Who were they from, Debby?

MARY BIOTY -- Mary spent a good share of her time behind a typewriter. You'll make a wonderful secretary, Mary.

SUSAN BURKE -- is a winsome lass; she reached for the brake and hit the gas. You loved that Volkswagen, didn't you, Sue?

PATRICIA BURNS -- Patty spent many, many hours sitting on her porch watching the Impalas go by.

SANDRA CHENEY -- Sandy was always writing letters. The post office should give you a discount on stamps, Sandy.

THERESE COSTELLO -- Therese divided her time between school activities and Karl. Which was more interesting, Therese?

LINDA DEO -- Linda loved square dancing. You had some great times, didn't you Linda?

BARBARA HYJEK -- Barb was our able and efficient editor. You hold the fastest record for getting the "Green & Gold" out on time!

SANDRA JANKOWSKI -- Sandy's time was spent typing and being quiet. At which were you better, Sandy?

MARY MARGARET NASH -- Mary Marg spent most of her time trying to discover new ways of getting to school on time. At least you tried!

KATHERINE NIENALTOWSKI -- Kathy spent most of her time opening windows in Miss Yager's room; much to her disapproval!

PATRICIA PECOR -- Patsy was often seen taking her sister to work on school days. Now we know why you were late for school.

DIANNE PERRY -- Dianne could often be seen riding her white horse, Sheba, through the STREETS of Ira.

MARY SALENGO -- Mary was the industrious one of our class. You may be the owner of a chain store someday, with the start you have.

THERESA SMYRSKI -- Terry was always talking about sports. You'd make a great sports announcer, Terry.

STEPHEN BANIA -- Steve spent a lot of his time in sports and with Susan. Honestly! Which was more interesting, Steve?

JAMES BRYTOWSKI -- Jim spent most of his time on the route to Proctor. Just think! Now you won't have to travel so far to have help with your studies, Jim!

ROBERT CARVEY -- Bob didn't have any extra time. It was all taken up shining his high cowboy boots!

MICHAEL CONLON -- For a long time Mike could be found at Seigny's store. Through his information we found that the pay was good, but the goodies were better.

JAMES FULLER -- A lot of Jim's time was spent on the telephone last year. However, this year there was a change -- he wrote letters.

EDWARD GLODZIK -- Eddie was always paying money he owed to friends. Now maybe you'll catch up and have some of your own, Ed.

RONALD HIER -- Ronnie was one of the quieter ones but was always happy and good company.

PATRICK HIGGINS -- Pat could make friends with anyone. I'm sure we'll all remember your little favors, Pat.

ROBERT HYJEK -- Many times Bob was seen on the road to Hubbardton. We bet he had a very special friend over there that kept him quite busy.

STANLEY JAKUBOWSKI -- Stan was always looking for someone with whom to play cards, after all, he was known as the "Card Shark!"

RAYMOND JEPSON -- Ray Ray's time was spent driving his Buick to and from school. We bet you'll miss the drive, Ray!

BRUCE JOHNSTON -- Although he was quiet, he was always easy to get along with and was often seen working on his car.

EDWARD MCGANN -- Eddie's thoughts were always deep in books. However, he still found time to join the crowd and bring laughs.

RICHARD SWEENEY -- When there was snow, Dick could be found on the slopes. When there wasn't any, he was under his Model "A."

JOSEPH TURNER -- Joe was a quiet lad who was always looking for something to do. Our ambitious class solved that problem for you -- didn't it, Joe??

ERNEST WEDIN -- Ernie could be seen most of the time drawing covers for the "Green & Gold." I'm sure that's how we'll remember you, Ernie.

KENNETH HELEBA -- Ken always had the class in hysterics. Now that we're separating, Ken, for whom will you perform your little mischievous acts?

EDWARD LARSON -- Ed came to our school late in the year. In his short time he gained a number of friends and was always a cheerful note.

DIANNE PERRY
ROBERT HYJEK

Class Presentations

DEBORAH AMSDEN -- A pair of stilts so you'll know how it feels to look down on the world.

STEPHEN BANIA -- A miniature football to remind you of your playing days for the Westsiders.

MARY BIOTY -- A report card with all D's -- just so you will know what they look like.

JAMES BRYTOWSKI -- A pogo stick to make your trips to Proctor much easier.

SUSAN BURKE -- A peace pipe. Perhaps now you can get along better with Eddie McGann and Dick Sweeney.

PATRICIA BURNS -- Marbles! You can't possibly say much with these in your mouth.

ROBERT CARVEY -- A new pair of Beatle boots -- for the time when yours wear out!

SANDRA CHENEY -- A bell so we'll know when you're around.

MICHAEL CONLON -- One quart of Susie Slim milk. Now we'd like to see you gain weight!

THERESE COSTELLO -- A whistle to remind you of the many times you confused the band with your signals.

LINDA DEO -- A can of foot-spray to relieve your feet after that long walk home.

JAMES FULLER -- A portable telephone -- now you don't have to run to a phone booth to call Dorcas.

LINDA GILLIGAN -- Your own very special alphabet -- made up of what else but SSSSSSS.

EDWARD GLODZIK -- A package of cigarettes -- now you won't have to scrounge for a while.

PATRICK HIGGINS -- A book of Modern Poetry -- they probably aren't as good as some of yours, Pat.

KENNETH HELEBA -- A lunch -- now you won't have to "borrow" any.

RONALD HIER -- A "school skippers" certificate -- for the most days missed in one year.

BARBARA HYJEK -- A beatle record. We really do love your -- "yeh -- yeh -- yeh."

ROBERT HYJEK -- A school calendar. Now you'll really know when you're DUE for a vacation.

STANLEY JAKUBOWSKI -- A deed to a gambling hall, all your own -- now you'll really have some competition.

SANDRA JANKOWSKI -- A W. R. H. S. pennant to remind you of all the games you attended.

RAYMOND JEPSON -- A book of One-Thousand Ways to Laugh. No more sober faces from you, Ray!

JOHN JOHNSON -- A roll of adhesive tape; poor John was always injuring himself.

BRUCE JOHNSTON -- A valve cover. It might come in handy after you take one of your motors apart.

EDWARD LARSON -- A W. R. H. S. pin -- to remind you of your Senior year at "West-side."

EDWARD MCGANN -- A new jeep -- not that there was anything wrong with the old one.

MARY MARGARET NASH -- An autographed picture of Mr. Wise -- to remind you of your mechanical drawing days.

KATHERINE NIENALTOWSKI -- A flower for your budding personality.

PATRICIA PECOR -- A hamburger -- you surely could make a good one.

DIANNE PERRY -- A test tube -- to remind you of your many episodes in chemistry lab.

MARY SALENGO -- A broom -- you should know what that is -- you swept the store frequently enough.

THERESA SMYRSKI -- A paper bag in which to collect your thoughts. They were always running wild.

RICHARD SWEENEY -- A string of beads -- each one signifying a girl's broken heart.

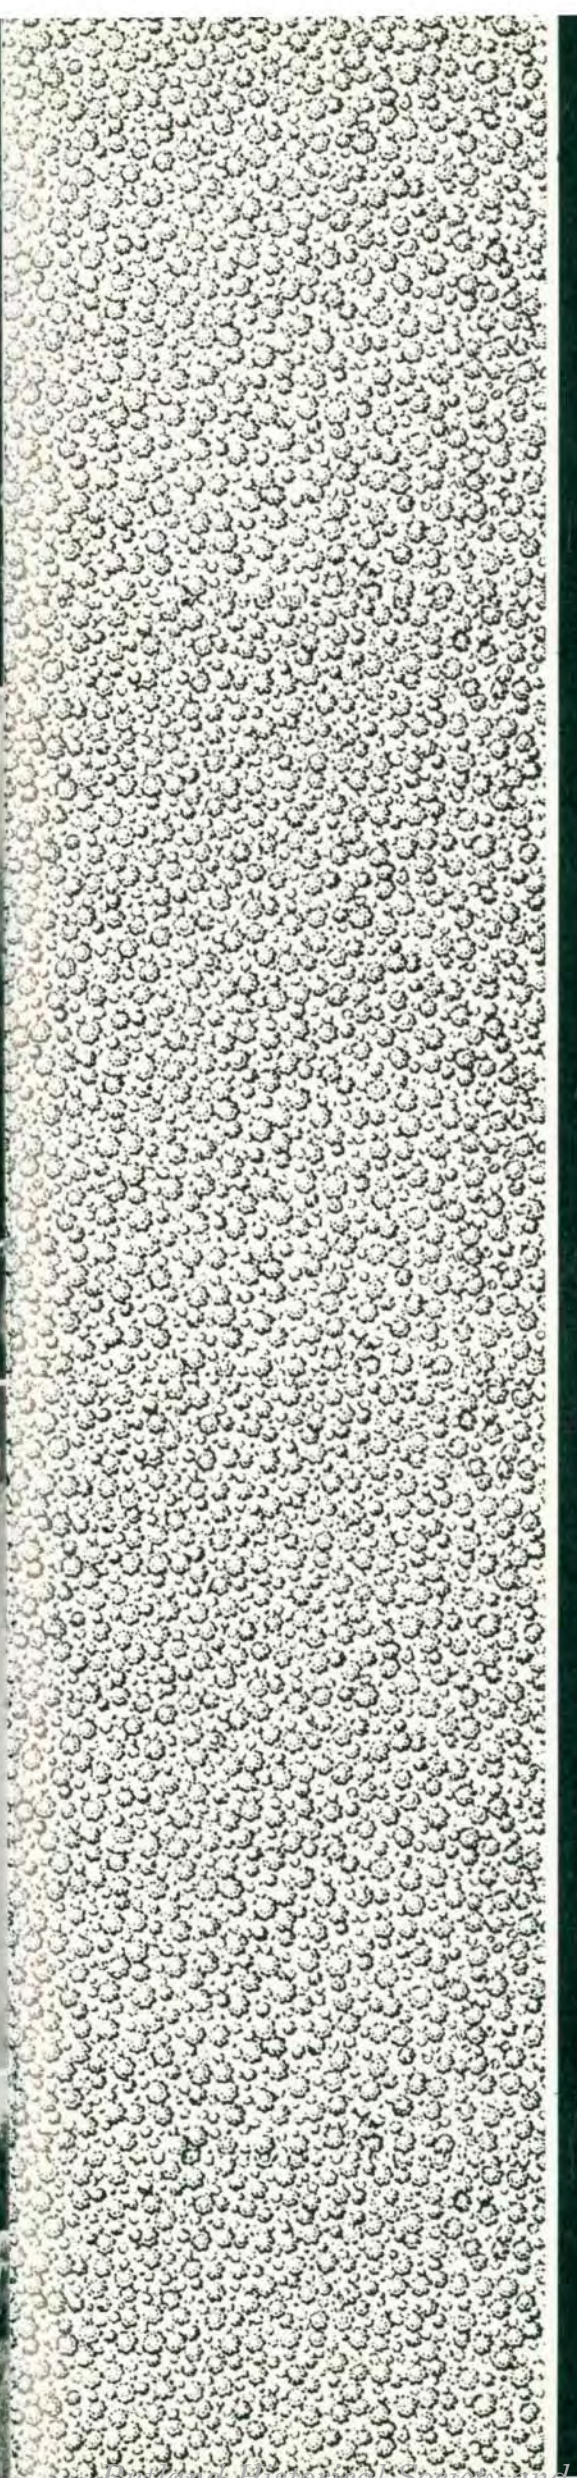

JOSEPH TURNER -- A picture of your Pick-up -- It might last just a little longer.

ERNEST WEDIN -- A squirt gun -- to remind you of all the hunting you did both legally and otherwise.

ATHLETICS

Football

The Golden Horde unsuccessfully struggled to accomplish a victorious season. Their final standing was 0-7 and they occupied last place in the MVL.

Sept. 19. The first home game and the first game of the season saw the Bulldogs of Burr & Burton defeat the Horde, 36-6. Our only touchdown was scored by Greg Welch.

Sept. 26. The Fair Haven Slaters traveled to Westside. The trip was successful by beating the Hordemen by a 25-0 score.

Oct. 10. This was the Horde's first away game of the season. Westside couldn't hold back the offensive drive of the Blue Devils of Poultney. The final score was 33-0 in Poultney's favor.

Oct. 17. The Wasps of Woodstock invaded Hinchey Field and knocked Westside out for a 40-6 score. Clarence Ransom scored Westside's only touchdown for the afternoon.

Oct. 24. The Golden Horde took a little trip to Fair Haven but the Slaters spoiled it by trouncing the Hordemen. Ed Reczek scored the only touchdown. The final score was 55-7. The most points the defensive team gave up during the season.

Oct. 31. The Hordemen lost by the score of 21-6 by the hands of the Burr & Burton Bulldogs. The Horde scored four touchdowns; three were disqualified because of penalties. The touchdown that was counted was scored by Ed Reczek.

Nov. 7. The last game of the season coming up and the Hordemen had only one chance for a victory. Their hopes were shattered by the Poultney Blue Devils. The Horde surprised everyone by holding the Blue Devils to only 26 points. Westside played its best game of the season. The Horde scored a touchdown but it was disqualified by a clipping penalty. The final score was 26-0 in the favor of Poultney.

To climax his high school football career, Steve Bania was named as a guard on the second team of the MVL All-Star Team.

Ed Reczek was named as one of the eight Class I Standouts in the Vermont High School All-State Football Team, for a well played season.

Varsity Basketball

As the first-half of the season came to a close, Westside held a 5-5 record and was in 5th place. Westside's longest winning streak was three games. We also had a five game losing streak. Two of our players were in the top twenty individual scoring in the Southern Vermont League. Ray Czachor was in fifth place with an average of 15.5 points per game and Ed Reczek was in seventh place with 14.9 points per game.

Dec. 1st, 1964. Strong Westside surged to a 65-27 win over Otter Valley. Lou Glodzick headed the Westside attack with 16 points. Ray Czachor and Ed Reczek added 11 and 10 points respectively.

Dec. 3 the Horde swamped the Midgets of Hartford by 72-39 score. The Hordesmen took a commanding 10 point lead after the first quarter and never lost the edge. Ed Reczek dumped in 18 points. Ray Czachor had 12 points and Tom Jakubowski tallied 10 points for the teams cause.

Dec. 8. The Bennington Catholic Sabers came on strong in the period to hand Westside its first loss, 53-39. Tom Jakubowski with 15 points was high man for Westside. Ed Reczek was second with 10 points in the losing cause.

Dec. 11. Westside suffered its second loss of the season, at the hands of Bellows Falls. The Terriers jumped to a first quarter lead and never trailed. The final score was 66-54. Ray Czachor had one of his big nites, with 22 points.

Dec. 15. M. S. J. edged the Westsiders by a 96-84 score. The Golden Horde made a desperate effort to catch up before the end of the first period but fell short. Westside was slow in the second quarter, but a third period surge made up for some of it. Unable to retaliate in the fourth period the Horde bowed to its arch rival. Jim Brytowski was high man with 28 points and Ed Reczek was second with 18.

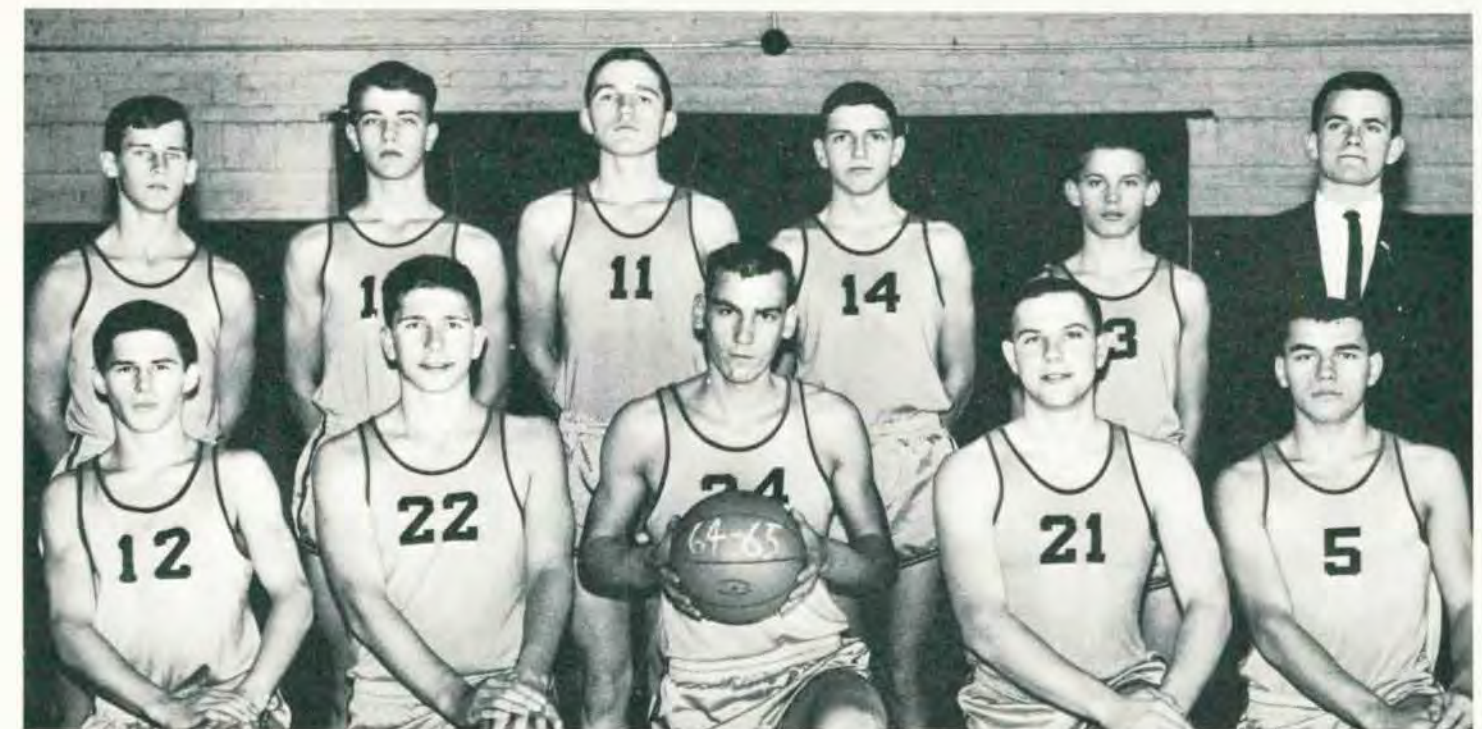

Dec. 21. Rutland High unfolded a smashing upset victory with a 51-40 win over the Westsiders. Westside took an early lead but the powerful Raider team with a little luck came back and won the game. This loss continued our losing streak. Ed Reczek led Westside with 17 points and Ray Czachor had 10 points.

Dec. 23. Springfield High dashed away at the opening tap and sent Westside careening to its fifth straight defeat by an 81-61 score. The rebounding and sharpshooting of the Hordesmen fired a third-period Westside rally, but Springfield subs still kept up with the Golden Horde. Ed Reczek and Ray Czachor shared the scoring honors with 16 points apiece.

On December 28, Westside unraveled a five game losing streak with a 68-62 win over the Windsor Yellow-jackets. The Jackets were strong in the last eight minutes left in the game but could not keep up with hot Westside shooting and rebounding. Ed Reczek had 20 points and Ray Czahor tossed in 18.

On December 30, a determined Westside took advantage of Brattleboro not having their star player, and embarrassed them by the score of 68-51. Westside's performance was the best since the M. S. J. game. Ray Czachor, who played a tremendous game under the boards both rebounding and shooting, led both teams with 24 points. This was another of his high scoring games. Jim Urbano helped his team by tossing his highest score of his career up to date with 19 points.

The Hordesmen were victorious on Jan 5, 1965 over winless Bennington Catamounts by a 65-53 score. Westside led all the way with advantages at the period stops of four, nine, and 15 points. Westside dominated the boards through the game. Jim Brytowski was the high scorer with 20 points. Ed Reczek and Ray Czachor gave a helping hand with 17 and 19 points, respectively.

Be Near Those
You Love ...
Always.

Even if you can't visit those you love as often as you'd like, your gift portrait will tell them you're thinking of them. You need no special occasion to say "hello" with a portrait of yourself or your family. It's a wonderful way to make someone dear very happy!
